

Reflection Guide
Sermon Title: If You Are Looking For Me…I'm Outside

Key Takeaways

⇒ A God dream is a prophetic picture of God's preferred future.
⇒ Purpose is not a single thing; it is a compilation of things.
⇒ Your purpose will most often be expressed outside the church walls.
⇒ You are called to the streets to infiltrate, impact, influence, and generate income.
⇒ Carrying out your purpose requires three spiritual assets.

Personal Reflection

1. Have you ever experienced a season where God shifted you out of a role, and you mistakenly thought you had been shifted out of your purpose? What did that feel like, and what did you learn from it?

2. Calling is "God's invitation to participate in the reason for your creation through the roles He assigns in every season." How does this definition change or expand the way you previously thought about calling?

3. "You were made for the streets." How does that land with you? Does it challenge any assumptions you have held about where God's work primarily happens?

4. Of the seven streets: religious, family, education, wellness, arts and entertainment, government, and business, which one do you feel most drawn to or most equipped for? Why?

5. Pastor Dharius connects income to being "more than intercessors but also answers to issues in the earth." How does this reframe the way you think about your career, finances, or professional ambitions?

6. The sermon identified three spiritual assets: spiritual traits, spiritual gifts, and spiritual fruit. Which of these three do you feel most developed in right now? Which one needs the most attention?

7. Joseph demonstrated the gift of revelation and the word of wisdom. Think about the spiritual gifts present in your own life. How are those gifts currently being used and are they being used primarily inside the church, outside the church, or both?

8. Have you ever thought of your career, your neighborhood, or your community involvement as a God-given assignment? What would change about how you approach those areas if you did?
